Resolution: 20190131
WBA Championships Committee
Super Bantamweight
Champion Daniel Roman

BACKGROUND

On January 21st 2019 Daniel Roman requested a Special Permit to engage in immediate unification bout against T J Doheny, IBF Super Bantamweight Champion. Daniel Roman's last mandatory defense was June 16 2018, which makes his next Mandatory defense on April 16.

On December 12 2018, The Championship Committee ordered negotiations to commence between Champion Daniel Roman and Mandatory Contender Murodjon Akhmadaliev.

On January 29 2019, The championship Committee has received a response from Mr. John Hornewer

Although Mr Hornewerm, World of Boxing and Mr. Akhmadaliev are Not against granting Special Permit to Daniel Roman they request that any grant of the Request be conditioned to require that Roman and Doheny agree in writing that the winner (or in the event of a draw, Roman) shall make the mandatory defense of the WBA title against mandatory challenger Akhmadaliev in his next bout while waiving any right to participate in a further unification bout or right to request an additional Special Permit.

Moreover, Akhmadaliev shall have the right to participate in a bout against an opponent of his choice and shall retain the rights acknowledged by the Association as the mandatory challenger for a mandatory that is due and those additional rights requested above so long as Akhmadaliev does not lose said bout. In addition, Akhmadaliev and World Of Boxing request that the Association require that Roman and Matchroom be held strictly accountable for the information set forth in the application with any deviation requiring that the mandatory bout be contested without any other intervening bout with a set deadline of the unification occurring by the end of April and the next mandatory of Akhmadaliev occurring within 90 days of the said bout.
